

Wiki Discussion Rubric

Advanced	Proficient	Partially Proficient	Unsatisfactory
*Comments clearly, specifically, and accurately address the prompt. They show insight and originality.	*Comments clearly address the prompt.	*Comments attempt to address the prompt. Some comments may be vague and/or repetitive.	*Comments include few details and/or do not address the prompt.
*Comments include effective supporting information from the text.	*Comments include some supporting information from the text.	*Comments include little supporting information from the text.	*Comments do not include supporting information from the text.
*Comments include higher level questions you have about your reading.	*Comments include general questions you have about your reading.	*Comments include basic questions you have about your reading.	*Comments do not include questions you have about your reading.
*Comments use sophisticated vocabulary and include figurative language when appropriate.	*Comments use strong nouns and verbs.	*Comments use basic nouns and verbs.	*Comments use limited vocabulary that is vague and/or inaccurate.
*Comments use all correct conventions (spelling, capitalization, punctuation).	*Comments have 1-2 conventions errors (spelling, capitalization, punctuation).	*Comments have 3-4 conventions errors (spelling, capitalization, punctuation).	*Comments have 5 or more conventions errors (spelling, capitalization, punctuation).