

I Am

I am strong and reluctant

I wonder why I am not dead yet

I hear the spirit bear

I see myself being a baby bird

I want to live

I am strong and reluctant

I pretend to get up and be healthy again

I feel the spirit bears heart beat

I touch the spirit bears fur again

I worry about peter

I cry about feeling insignificant

I am strong and reluctant

I understand that I am on my way of dying

I understand that I deserve to dye

I dream about being a bird

I try to live

I hope that I will heal

I am strong and reluctant
